Priscilla Bianchi, born, raised and living in Guatemala, Central America, represents a unique personality in today's art quilting world. In only two years, her career has been both prolific and successful.

Her distinctive style is characterized by a use of bold, bright colors that make a statement; a daring approach to choosing and combining fabrics and textures; a thirst for experimentation and risk-taking; and a definite ethnic appeal.

Her one-of-a-kind art quilts incorporate the richness of Guatemalan textiles, colors, patterns and symbolisms, giving life to a myriad of pieces that are fresh, vibrant and innovative. The magic, mystical Mayan culture sets them apart by imparting a delicious Latin American flavor.
